

Corbin Mills started the day two strokes off the lead after he finished day one with a 68. The Easley, SC native came home with a 67 to win by two over Robert Register. A back nine of 32 gave him the cushion he needed for his first major national win. "Solid play and a good short game got me around on a tough day" said the future Clemson Tiger.

Normally played at the Country Club of Spartanburg, The Carolina Country Club is host for the 2008 event due to renovations at the home course for the tournament. Carolina Country Club is host to the BMW Charity Pro-Am for the Nationwide Tour and has been a wonderful host for the one year hiatus.
